Orchid Digest

“40 Species for your Greenhouse”

We will be watching a slideshow from Orchid Digest titled “40 Species for your Greenhouse”. The slideshow was based on recommendations by Red and Trudi Marsh from orchids in their own collection. Images of the orchids were kindly supplied by Eric Hunt, Greg Allikas, and other AOS award photographers with additional information from Jay Pfahl of the Internet Orchid Species Photo Encyclopedia. The Marshes were fortunate to be able to go to Brazil with Dr. Jack Fowlie to do some collecting. This started a whole new concept—growing species, which added a new dimension to their orchids and their lives. One of the things the Marshes enjoyed the most about collecting species was the variation in blooming times. “There is always something in bloom in our greenhouse and always others in bud about ready to open. The Marshes either purchased or traded for most of their plants and had them growing in the intermediate house. They were all favorites of the Marshes. They always said that the ones in bloom at the moment were the best.

Plant Opportunity Table

The plant table for this month will be provided by Carmela’s Orchid. So don’t forget to get your raffle tickets!

Awards Dinner

If you failed to put this years Awards Banquet on your calendar, plan to do so next year.

You missed a good time, good food, and excellent friendly company among the members and guests that attended. The social hour was just that, with many conversations taking place, some sipping a beverage. The main topic of course, was orchids.

Gift plants from Carmela's Orchid were Cattleyas, Dendrobiums, Cymbidiums, and other genera. Jim Gomes was awarded 1st place for All Around Winner for overall total points accumulated all year for all genera. Points are awarded for Ribbons won at the monthly plant judging. See the winners to the left and above for overall.

The Food was delicious with the Society furnishing Chicken and Coffee. The potluck was a sumptuous array of many tasty dishes with enough left over for seconds.

Overall it was a delightful evening.
